NAVIGABILITY DETERMINATION FOR SAUK AND SUIATTLE RIVERS

Effective immediately, the Sauk River from its mouth at the Skagit River to Bedal (River Mile 40) and the Suiattle River from its mouth at the Sauk River to the Boundary Bridge (River Mile 11.5) are considered to be a navigable water of the United States under Section 10 of the Rivers and Harbors Act. Therefore, these waters are now subject to Section 10 jurisdiction and work in these waters will require at least a Section 10 permit, and possibly a Section 404 of the Clean Water Act permit. An updated list of all navigable waters within the Seattle District boundaries can be found at:
